

Amelia Island
Guides
Association

Code of Ethics

- All members of the Amelia Island Guide Association acknowledge their responsibility to represent the guiding profession in a conscientious manner. We therefore commit ourselves to high standards of ethical conduct and hereby state the precepts that will guide us as we guide others.
- Obey all game management laws of the State of Florida and the United States Government.
- Obey all regulation of the United States Coast Guard.
- Adhere to the licensing requirements of the City of Fernandina Beach, State of Florida and the United States Coast Guard and conscientiously renew and maintain licenses as required.
- Always exhibit professionalism in the execution of our duties as boat captains or guides. We will remain vigilant so as to never endanger our guests. Their welfare and safety will be of preeminent concern, making all other considerations secondary.
- Remain strictly intolerant of unsafe, irresponsible or illegal acts.
- Refuse to aid, assist, or promote any individual or company who is unlicensed.
- Respect nature and the environment.
- Conduct ourselves honestly, honorably, and with integrity when dealing with the public and other members of the guiding fraternity.
- Within the bounds of safety, reason, and ethics endeavor to provide for our clients as quality outdoor experience.

I read and understand this Code of Ethics and agree to follow it.
